

ENGAGE, INSPIRE, EMPOWER

WHO WE ARE

The ISTA Educational Foundation's mission is to engage, inspire, and empower student leaders who will improve our world through advancing transport packaging design.

Dedicated to the support and service of the packaging community, the ISTA Educational Foundation (ISTAEF) is a non-profit, tax-exempt 501(C)3 charitable organization, raising and distributing funds to foster educational growth in the transport packaging space.

CREATING THE NEXT GENERATION OF PACKAGING LEADERS

WHAT WE DO

The ISTAEF will implement its mission by supporting the following activities and programs:

RESEARCH GRANTS

Awarding grants and scholarships to encourage and support research in transport packaging.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Promoting the importance of appropriately designing packaging for its intended supply chain to packaging students.

RECOGNIZE EDUCATIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Awarding the R. David LeButt Award to recognize educational contributions in transport packaging.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

The importance of reducing product damage throughout distribution and optimizing resource usage through effective package design has never been greater.

Our educational work is driving a new generation of packaging leaders who will improve our world through advancing transport packaging design, but we need additional resources to continue to have lasting reach and impact.

Help us reach our goal of $2 million for grants and scholarships to encourage and support research in transport packaging.

Goal:
$2 million
